A1

You must disclose all names you have been known by throughout your life, including your full legal name, name before marriage (maiden name), and other previous names and/or alias names.

All names that you submit as part of your nationally coordinated criminal history check will appear on the check result. If you are concerned about the disclosure of previous name, please contact the accredited body.

With each additional name you provide, you must include your family name, first given names and other given names (if applicable).

Example:

When Lucianne was born, she was given the first name Lucianne, second given name Jane and surname of Jones. When she was married, she changed her surname to Smith. Lucianne commonly uses the name Lucy when introducing herself in the community.

As such, Lucianne has four known names—her current name, pre-marriage name, the alias name she used before she got married and the alias name she uses now. Lucianne needs to provide all four names when completing this form, as follows:

Current name: Smith, Lucianne Jane
Pre-marriage name: Jones, Lucianne Jane
Alias name: Smith, Lucy Jane
Alias name: Jones, Lucy Jane

A2.

You must select the gender that best describes how you identify yourself within the community.

The gender details that you submit as part of your nationally coordinated criminal history check, will be the gender that appears on the check result.

The ACIC’s processes are aligned with the Australian Government Guidelines on the Recognition of Sex and Gender. If these Guidelines affect you and you would like additional information specifically regarding this, please contact the ACIC directly at npcs@acic.gov.au

A3.

If you cannot provide all these details, contact the accredited body or its legal entity customer.

A4.

Provide your current and previous residential addresses for the past five years.

If you cannot provide full details, provide as much information as possible. If you are unsure how to complete this section contact the accredited body or its legal entity customer.

A5. Please read this before answering the following questions.

If you have an Australian driver’s license and/or an Australian firearms license, you must provide the licence number and the state or territory that issued your licence.

If you have a foreign driver’s licence and/or a firearm licence you must provide the licence number and the country that issued your licence.

If you have a passport, you must provide the passport number and the country that issued

Section B – Purpose of the nationally coordinated criminal history check

The purpose for your nationally coordinated criminal history check helps determine what police information is disclosed on your result.

B1 Please read this before answering the following question.

For question B1, provide the following information:
 1. Position title, occupation, volunteer role or entitlement being sought
 2. Proposed place of work (name of organisation or type of workplace or industry)
 3. Location of the role (town and state/territory)
 Acronyms must not be used – except for the state/territory.
Example: Case worker, Youth Housing Facilities, Canberra, ACT.
Example: volunteer in canteen, St Bebes, Canberra, ACT

Your position title, occupation or entitlement

Your proposed place of work (name of organisation or type of workplace or industry)

The location of your work (town and state/territory)

B2 Please read this before answering the following question.

For question B2, indicate whether you will have supervised/unsupervised contact with vulnerable groups as part of the role you are applying for.

Vulnerable groups means:

- a child,
 - an adult who is disadvantaged or in need of special care, support or protection because of age, disability or risk of abuse or neglect.

Contact means direct or indirect face-to-face contact, phone contact or any type of communication over the internet.

Supervision means in the presence of an adult who is responsible for the safety or care of the vulnerable person.

Unsupervised means you will not be in the presence of an adult who is responsible for the safety or care of the vulnerable person.

Select the statement that best describes the role you are applying for:

Supervised contact with vulnerable people

Unsupervised contact with vulnerable people

No contact with vulnerable people

Section C – Type of nationally coordinated criminal history check

C1. Please read this before answering the following question.

You may request a volunteer check if you will hold a position or perform a role where you will not receive any salary, benefits or financial gain. This includes students undertaking compulsory vocational placements.
 Volunteer check type must not be selected for the Australian Government’s Work for the Dole Scheme.
You must be able to validate the charity organisation or volunteer position to support your selection of the volunteer type.

Section D – Informed consent

What is informed consent?

Your informed consent is needed before an accredited body can request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on you. Your informed consent means you:

- have read and understood the information provided in this form about how your personal information and any police information relevant to you will be handled and disclosed
- provide your permission for the accredited body to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on your behalf
- provide your permission for the accredited body to disclose your information to any organisation listed in D1 of this form.

How do I provide my informed consent?

An important aspect of providing informed consent is that you understand what you are consenting to. It is important that you read the consent statements in question D2 and, where required, get clarification from the accredited body or its legal entity customer, to ensure complete understanding. You must then sign and date this form at D2, to give your informed consent.

Important: Please read this information about question D1.

The accredited body is required to complete the details at D1 before providing the form to you.

D1 provides the details of the organisations to whom your personal and police information will be disclosed to.

In question D2, you will provide your informed consent for your personal and police information to be disclosed to the ACIC, Australian police agencies, law enforcement agencies, and any organisations detailed in question D1.

Personal information	Information about you, including any information contained in your identity documents.
Police information	Information released as part of a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

Who completes this form?

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer pre-populates this form with information in these sections: How to submit this form, Contact details and question D1.

Applicant

You are required to provide your personal details and informed consent to complete this form. You must also provide your identity documents, as detailed in Documents required. If you are less than 18 years of age, this form must be completed by your parent or legal guardian. You are completing this form to obtain a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

What is a nationally coordinated criminal history check?

A nationally coordinated criminal history check is conducted with your informed consent to determine your suitability for employment, a position of trust or as required by legislation. A nationally coordinated criminal history check contains your personal information, and any relevant police information about you, according to the purpose of your nationally coordinated criminal history check.

Privacy notice

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian police agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the applicant's identity documentation:

- to disclose police information relating to you, to the accredited body named in question D1.
- to update records held about you
- for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer uses the personal information collected in this application to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check and to assure itself of your identity.

The accredited body may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party. If applicable, third parties are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information about relevant legislation from the accredited body.

The accredited body or its legal entity customer must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted offshore transfer arrangement. If this applies, the legal name and location of the overseas entity are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information from the accredited body listed in D1.

You can contact the accredited body for more information on how they handle your personal information using the contact details at the end of this section.

How is my national coordinated criminal history check result determined?

Police information is disclosed in accordance with applicable spent conviction legislation and information release policies of the Australian Government and state and territory governments.

These links may help you source information on spent convictions:
